

MORE THAN 4,000 REDS ARRESTED

Larger Part of Radicals Taken in Nation-wide Raids of U.
S. Agents to Be Deported.

LIST IS GROWING HOURLY

Last night's roundup at the largest and most successful ever staged in this city, Chief Flynn said, "The raid was given special instructions to avoid 'grand stand stuff' but to go after the radicals in a quiet and businesslike manner."

Examination of the prisoners continued until dawn. Flynn pointed out in custody was asked whether he was a citizen or had applied for citizenship. The answer was given in this country and the name of the steamer, if he was a member or an active member of the American labor party and what position he held in the party. The names of the persons who had been arrested in this country and the name of the steamer, if he was a member or an active member of the American labor party and what position he held in the party. The names of the persons who had been arrested in this country and the name of the steamer, if he was a member or an active member of the American labor party and what position he held in the party.

Answers to the questions determined in part whether the radicals were to be held or released. Considerable difficulty was experienced in the examination of the radicals described many of the radicals arrested as communists. Chief Flynn said, "The agents who were in the field were given special instructions to avoid 'grand stand stuff' but to go after the radicals in a quiet and businesslike manner."

In addition to examining the persons arrested, department of justice agents have been taking photographs of the radicals. The department of justice agents have been taking photographs of the radicals. The department of justice agents have been taking photographs of the radicals.

CON CON MEMBERS GATHER AT CAPITAL

State Delegates to Frame New Code Already at Springfield—
Hope to Avoid Parties.

(By Associated Press Lead Wire.)
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—Despite the fact that there will be a preponderance of Republican delegates in the constitutional convention which arrives today, delegates from party affiliations would not influence the members when they take up the task of framing the state's basic law. At the election last November 45 Republicans and 17 Democrats were elected as delegates. The delegates were compelled to run as party candidates because of state election laws.

Many of the delegates were here today ready for the opening of the convention. Many came early in order to attend a meeting which has been called for tomorrow morning to select a chairman. The delegates will be discussed.

List of Delegates.
The complete list of delegates follows:
